

COMPENSATION COMMITTEE CHARTER

The board of directors (the “Board”) of monday.com Ltd. (the “Company”) has constituted and established a compensation committee (the “Committee”) with the authority, responsibility and duties as described in this Compensation Committee Charter (this “Charter”).

This Charter does not derogate from nor supersede, and instead will be read in conjunction with, the terms set forth in the Company’s Compensation Policy for Directors and Officers (the “Compensation Policy”), which was adopted on May 25, 2021, in accordance with the requirements set forth under the Israeli Companies Law, 5759-1999, and the regulations promulgated thereunder, as may be amended from time to time (the “Companies Law”). If any term of this Charter contradicts the requirements under the Companies Law relating to the Compensation Policy, or the Compensation Policy itself, then the terms of the Companies Law and the Compensation Policy, as applicable, will prevail.

I. Purpose

The purpose of the Committee is to oversee the discharge of the responsibilities of the Board relating to compensation of the Company’s Board members, the Chief Executive Officer (or Co-Chief Executive Officers, if applicable) and other “office holders” (as defined under the Companies Law) and the administration of the Company’s equity incentive plans.

II. Composition

The Committee must consist of at least two directors, each of whom must satisfy the independence requirements of the Nasdaq Stock Market LLC (“Nasdaq”), except as otherwise permitted by applicable Nasdaq rules, and meet all other eligibility requirements of applicable laws, including the requirements of the Companies Law with respect to external directors, as applicable. Committee members must be appointed and may be removed from the Committee, with or without cause, by the Board. Unless a Chair is designated by the Board, the Committee may designate a Chair by majority vote of the full Committee membership, subject to the requirements of the Companies Law with respect to external directors, as applicable.

III. Meetings, Procedures and Authority

The Committee has the authority to establish its own rules and procedures for notice and conduct of its meetings so long as they are not inconsistent with any provisions of the Companies Law and the Company’s Amended and Restated Articles of Association, as in effect from time to time (the “Articles of Association”).

The Committee may, in its sole discretion, retain or obtain advice from compensation consultants, legal counsel or other advisers (independent or otherwise), provided that, preceding any such retention or advice, the Committee must take into consideration the applicable factors under Nasdaq rules. The Committee will be directly responsible for the appointment, compensation and oversight of any adviser it retains. The Company must provide for appropriate funding, as determined by the Committee, for payment of reasonable compensation to any adviser retained by the Committee.

In addition to the duties and responsibilities expressly delegated to the Committee in this Charter, the Committee may exercise any other powers and carry out any other responsibilities consistent with this Charter, the purposes of the Committee, the Articles of Association and applicable Nasdaq rules.

The Committee has the authority to conduct or authorize investigations into any matters within the scope of its responsibilities as it deems appropriate, including the authority to request any officer, employee or adviser of the Company to meet with the Committee or any advisers engaged by the Committee.
